Key Accreditations & Memberships

Program Overview

The Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) Dual Award Program represents the highest level of academic and research achievement offered through East Bridge University.

Delivered in academic collaboration with Preah Sihamoniraja Buddhist University (PSBU), Cambodia — a government-accredited university under the Ministry of Education, Youth & Sport — this unique doctoral pathway blends European academic quality with Southeast Asian higher-education recognition.

It empowers scholars to engage in original, high-impact research across multiple disciplines, guided by an international team of academic supervisors from both EBU and PSBU.

Program Objectives

- ✓ To develop independent researchers and thought leaders with the ability to create new academic and professional knowledge.
- ✓ To provide a globally credible, Ministry-recognised Ph.D. qualification supported by European academic mentorship.
- ✓ To nurture interdisciplinary research and publication excellence through continuous guidance from EBU's research faculty.
- ✓ To foster a lifelong community of international scholars and practitioners contributing to the global knowledge economy.

Core Coursework

- ✓ Foundations of Research & Scholarly Inquiry
- ✓ Quantitative and Qualitative Research Methods
- ✓ Data Analysis and Academic Writing
- ✓ Research Ethics and Publication Standards
- ✓ Proposal Development and Seminar Presentation
- ✓ Doctoral Dissertation Supervision and Defense

Research Component

The research phase is at the heart of this Ph.D. journey. Each scholar is guided through every stage of the process by EBU's international research supervisors and academic mentors, ensuring structured progress from proposal to publication.

Candidates are expected to produce a doctoral dissertation of approximately 60,000 words, reflecting:

- ✓ Original contribution to knowledge in their chosen discipline
- ✓ Rigorous methodology and critical analysis
- ✓ Relevance to global academic or professional practice

Scholars also receive support in publishing research papers, attending academic conferences, and preparing for postdoctoral or academic appointments.

The final dissertation is defended before a joint academic committee representing both EBU and PSBU.
