Master of Social Sciences in Economics

MASTER OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

in Economics

Become a forward-thinking economist, analytical strategist, and global changemaker with our Master of Social Sciences in Economics - where economic theory meets real-world impact through innovation, policy, and social insight.

In our rapidly shifting world, economists are now called upon to do more than interpret data, they must apply economic theory to solve practical problems. They are strategic thinkers and problem-solvers, addressing challenges like global inequality, sustainable growth, and economic transformation. At East Bridge University, our Master of Social Sciences in Economics is designed to equip learners with a robust theoretical foundation, combined with critical analytical skills and a deep understanding of social and policy contexts. As economies evolve and interdependencies grow, the ability to interpret trends, assess policies, and contribute to sustainable development becomes a powerful tool. This program blends traditional economic thought with modern interdisciplinary insights to prepare graduates to lead with impact and understanding in the local and global spheres.
