Legal Entity

East Bridge University (EBU) is a private, independent, higher educational institution incorporated in France (Registration at RCS No: 839980851 R.C.S. Paris on 29 May 2018). As a non-contracted distance learning organisation, East Bridge University follows the guidelines outlined in the Code de l'Éducation, Articles L444-1 to 444-11 and R 444-1 to 444-28. East Bridge University has been granted the classification of a "hors contrat" institution within the French education system operating independently and is not required to follow the national curriculum imposed on schools under the contract.

EBU skill-development programmes and their ensuing awards and certifications are most conducive to personal and professional development purposes. EBU does not claim that its programmes or professional awards are academic in nature, as do other traditional/public/private universities in other parts of the world. Students are required to do their own independent research regarding the suitability of EBU programmes and ensure certifications based on an assessment of their own personal and professional development needs before enrolling into EBU programmes. EBU does not guarantee that the certifications conferred are accepted by other institutions of higher learning for further studies. EBU/EIU does not guarantee that the certifications conferred are accepted by employers, both private and public (government agencies), for job seeking and/or promotion purposes. However, EIU awards and certifications can be legalized / Apostille by the in Paris, and can be attested by various embassy offices in Paris at extra fees.
